

Interview 40 Zak Paine

In today's interview, I interview Zak Paine, AKA RedPill 78 and The Corruption Detector. Zak is a leader in the truth community and an expert on many current events. He has great insight into many of the lies we have been told over the years.

If you would like to examine Zak's work, you can find his podcasts on RedPill78News.com. His content spans a wide range of topics, and I'm confident you'll find his insights intriguing.

Thanks for listening today. I hope you enjoyed our interview with Zak. I hope to have him again in the near future. I also plan to have more key players from the truth community on GNA.

Until next time, KTLB!
